

Pig Dilemma

On Sunday 7th of September the police was bombarded with ~~tele~~ telephone calls ~~the~~ in London from locals about pig dilemma.

Mrs Walker reported to the cops at 9:30pm. ⁶⁶ Pigs were hovering past my ~~was~~ bedroom window and a ^{pig} ~~one~~ onked in my face and a cheeey one ate my snack. :-)

The following Sun rise there were messages of pigs sloshing on windows and, trizing farm animals and a cacophony ~~of~~ a cacophony of noises from the farm.

Police ask farmers if threats are there.

By Pippa

Friday report: Friday flying pigs.

On Friday 20th September, the police were swamped with calls from a speechless farmer who lives at Till Farm. She reported seeing her pigs flying in the air.

Miss Bansel telephoned the police just after 9pm. She reported seeing zooming pigs flying past her window. She even said she heard oinking noises coming from outside.

Next morning, more reports came to the police of flying pigs, glomping past houses, bike racks and windows. Miss Bansel explained to the police "I was terrified that my precious pigs were flying in the air. I couldn't believe it. All I wanted to do was get them down."

The police started questioning locals if they have any more information. They were asked to contact the police if they found any. People were warned to be careful wherever they go.

By Rubie

Saturday report

On Saturday 25th March 2024, at priory farm something strange happened. The police had constant calls from residents at priory farm, reporting pigs whistling in the air. Farmer Hoyet, Farmer of priory farm called the police just after 1pm shocking people and heard cunking pigs were in the air! "there my pigs!"

The next morning, there were more disturbing pigs cunking over town's and city's taking of chimneys. "All my pigs are gone and I don't know where they are!"

Police are asking locals to beware of flying of pigs and over town's and city's.

By Beau

Green and brown pigs

On ~~Saturday~~ Saturday 6th April 2015, the police were battered by calls and messages about flying pigs at Lilly Farm.

M. J. Oak phoned up the police and many more calls were made later that day. He told the police "I am ~~the~~ very scared to live on my farm because ~~the~~ pigs have invaded it can you please come and sort it out?"

There were many more reports about more flying pigs.

The police are now asking locals to keep an eye out for flying pigs and to stay safe.

By Bonnie.

Sunday report Sickly pigs

Sunday 18th April there was an unusual amount of calls and messages to the police they were from Water Fall Farm. Farmer Mr Lener, has been worried about his pigs.

Mr Lener, owner of Water Fall Farm, reported seeing pigs forcing their bodies through holes in the sticks.

The next morning, there were more calls of horse noise and sheep dogs barking. Mr Lener (owner of the pigs) told the police "I was collecting the hay bails, the pigs slipped out and the next thing I know pigs are flying around my head."

Police and detectives are still questioning the local farmers to try and get the pigs down. Please be warned that many roads will have to be closed! Sorry!

by Camille

Sunday Report

On Sunday 14th July the police department were overrun with strange calls from farmers about flying green pigs.

Miss Brock, owner of Sunflower farm contacted the police just after 1:20 am about flying green pigs. I was going to check on my sheep but then out of corner of my eye I witnessed green flying pigs.

The next morning, there were more calls about green flying pigs and a concoction of lies.

Members of the public are asked to contact the police with any information

by OSCAR

Thursday report: psychotic pigs!

On Thursday 6th of June, the police were over-run with calls regarding messages of chubby pigs slying at Goodstan Farm. Unhappy visitors and farmers called the police about this disturbance.

Amy the mother of Jack said to the police "I don't know what to say, I was taking Jack to the pig's sty when the pigs started to hove in the air. My little angel was traumatized!" When asked she said she heard a cacophony of splats and screams.

The next morning there were more reports of splats and screams. Detectives found pig dung and mud over roof tops and on windows.

Cops and detectives are questioning the visitors and farmers if they have witnessed any strange activity.

By Poppie

Thursday Relat: Big Pig

The police were bombarded with calls about pig matters, the police were very tired villagers were calling every second.

Mrs Merrin called the police about her car 66 last night I heard a big loud boom so I looked out side and there was a snort pig looking plump pig in my car at the time that hot pig was at my car it was smashed to smithereens.

The next morning there were more pig reports to the police about broken cars.

Please Report news if you see any pigs on cars, please call the police. They are warning tourists don't bring your cars.

BT Iris

on Sunday Feb

On Sunday the multiple puzzling calls to the detectives from people around New York City about kidnapping pigs.

Mark Workos called the detectives at around 10 PM about the kidnapping Maxwell fault cases.

Randy looked very why are the kidnapping pigs thing. First my window is this a joke or something? one entered next at me!

The following morning that was less late. The detectives are asking everyone around New York City if they see any more pigs and if they do that we wanted to contact the detectives.

By the way

Saturday report: pig problems

On Saturday, the 4th April the police were contacted by a massive group of people at London Farm. People reported pig problems. Pigs flew through the night sky at the farmer's farm.

Paige a farmer reported "I saw pigs floating up above the farm. I was farming and the pigs snorted at me with high pitch and low but one stared at me and snorted at me at the same time."

"The next morning, there was more reports seeing bright green and pink clouds next from the pigs. Visitors arrived as the moon fell because of the clouds?"

Police are questioning visitors what they saw and to contact the police.

By Willow.

On December 25 the police were bombarded with reports from Lincolnsheer locals and farmers about flying pigs.

Lionel the farmer phoned the police and told the police "I, m very tired all night long. I've been dealing with ^{the} flying pigs! Please Stop Matter!" and by the time he saw it was the morning!

He also reported the goods rotting over the Allen Statue and farmers were still reaping.

The police are questioning all the farmers to see they lost any pigs.

By Charlie

Tuesday report flying sinks.

Tuesday 26th October 09:00pm at Tatageild police station, they were bombarded with some peculiar calls from Hasebrut farm.

Farmer Lilly telephoned the police "Just to let you know that there were pigs flying above people's heads just then." She reported hearing pig noises everywhere she went.

The next morning, there was a variety of more information of pigs hovering in a box around everybody's head that they could find.

The detectives are questioning farmer Lilly if these are her pigs. They asked farmer Lilly if she can put the pigs in there own organised barn.

by Layla

On Thursday, the caps were blown with letters from Westernham farm. The pigs were sitting in their pen.
But out of no where pigs turned green like grass gross and started to fly. So Mr Tom reported a remedy.

The following morning, their water corners of disaster. "What is going on I was about to go to sleep but a pig was quivering past me and one even snored at me." Said Mr Tom.

So Mr Tom decided to ask the Polec to tell several neighbors if they know any thing about it.

by Emmie

Friday report Pig problem

On Friday 1st May Cops were overloaded with calls from people in London complaining about pigs bumping into Sky Skrapers.

Horrified workers telephoned the Cops just after noon they were reporting seeing pigs plunging their big pig poles into hotels.

Kathy was working from home and decided to take a break to water her flowers. unexpectedly it went dark. Doctors reported people hearing their throats from screaming so loud. Pigs were flying so high they were covering the sun.

Suddenly pig started to fall from the sky. then started shrink up you ever see glowing pigs call 911.

By Amelia

Wednesday Report: Playing Pigs

On Wednesday evening, 10pm exact, there were many unexpected telephone calls to the police reporting strange activities happening from the ~~church~~ church guiders reporting pigs puffing up like balloons and floating up, up into space. Some have told them it happened because they ate a bird feather!

Mr Wood, a night time runner caught sight of one levitating pig and immediately ran home. Mrs Wood contacted the police in horror. "I'm so disappointed! My husband just went on a run and to his surprise saw pigs rising off the ground! He also told me he saw them pooping on villagers and summer-sautling, doing front and back flips, even danced the tango! I'm very angry!"

The next morning, the police were also told that the pigs turned chocolate brown, grass green and peach pink. You may still see blobs of color in the sky, as those blobs will be pigs, playing pigs. Blowing up like hot air balloons, pigs are never stopping and coming down. They just stay up in space and some how manage to get into space ships, steering around into no-where.

The police are telling local residents if they see any falling pigs and if ~~you~~ they do please contact immediately. Please bring a umbrella out-side in case of falling poop. Stay Safe.

By Harper..

Pigs hovering

On Sunday night, the cops were bombarded with unexpected calls from anxious farmers, how lived in Tatsfield reporting pigs flying over the night sky.

Horrified Hanarah telephoned the cops just after 9pm. They reported witnessing pigs zooming over Bright Field farm. Hanarah told the cops, "I saw pigs flying over the farm and tumbling everywhere."

Later that night, there were more calls from my next door neighbors about pigs zooming and tumbling everywhere.

Anyone how is next door to Bright Field farm must keep contacted with the cops. Thank you.

By Carlotta

Friday the 6th Of June.

On Friday the 6th of June in London pigs were walking past balconies windows and seeing people on the street. The police were bombarded with so many calls from protesting citizens. The pigs were stealing morning citizens hats and scarves and gloves.

morning citizens were really angry at the police. Because of the pigs stealing their woolly hat and gloves and scarves.

Miss Hat told the police "I am very scared because my friend was taken by the pigs."

"All residents don't go out side at all times." Said the police.

by Ivy

Wednesday report: peculiar ~~peculiar~~ piglets

On Wednesday night at the time of 10pm the police were overflooded with calls from Ingham high street about hovering pigs.

Miss Licarish was brushing her hair ready for bed when she saw a peculiar site. "I was detangling my hair ready for bed when I saw a giant big green piglets doing head shoulders necks and toes."

The next morning her bird was tweeting non stop. She was not sure if she had dreamt it.

Police say to keep in contact with them if you see any dancing piglets.

by Isla

Tuesday Report.

On Tuesday 14th July at 9.14 pm.
The police were bombarded with calls from lots of locals and farmers. In the local forests about floating pigs.

Frighted mothers telephoned the police just after 12.10 pm. They reported, "Help! please come here now police officer!" They were so surprised in the act.

The following evening, they got calls ~~from~~ about pigs.

Police are questioning why pigs are flying in the sky.

By Oscar

Saturday Report: Pesticide pigs

On Saturday Oxted learn a 12:00pm there were numerous calls about peculiar happenings reported to the Shire from the local public, mostly about hovering pigs.

Srena phoned the Shire to say what could not be true. "It was enchanted golden apples that the pigs eat. Hysterically they glowed up then started pooping rainbow poop"
"and I still can't believe it."

Then Srena phoned the Shire saying "Please help, my house is saturated and filled with the stink of poop"

The next morning, the Shire said please keep an umbrella with you at all times and mask on. Please contact us if you see flying pigs and rainbow poop glowing down from the sky.

by ^{up} Alice

On Friday 11th of 5 I was the police had thousands of calls in the about police in the local and the police saying there are pigs starting to get in the way ^{and} out of the way this is where my
I called because I was getting in the way

My nose contacted the police and said "when I wake up I see pigs glaring past my window and usually was on the way all night so I hardly get any sleep"

The next morning there was reports to the police of a man in a and several pigs were seen in the garden that night.

The police said to be careful on the road just to be safe get pigs if it happens again.

By Rita Mita

On Friday th 5 the police were Bombed with call's about pig's telling in the air.
Mirwals

Mrs Times agreed with the police
By saying "Bad thing's and one pig had crashed into my window.

Next day the pig's had a bad stumck
Hurt with a green stumck how nose.

7 pig's city 7 pig's escaped Meanwhile police lots of call's.

Police said to the Family Feget about it.

By Lorenzo

Saturday report by Dillman

On Saturday 5th of April the police were surprised with unexpected calls and messages of 'provoked' Oxford public at the end park reporting about pigs with 150.

Bobby reported pigs at the park during the school football matches and when people got this shocked with entered the players not allowing them not to play the rest of the match. And this was because Bobby and I was left the best and he was not going to take that so once he had got home he called the police.

"Bobby son of Hollie and Jon plays slide tackled me so I could not play the rest of the match!"

The next day Hollie and Jon checked out the park with the police to see if the pigs were still there and they were so they hid in a bush to get information.

The police are asking the school residents to play matches in real pitches.

by Charlie

Thursday report peculiar pigs

On Thursday 2AM the police were bombarded with a variety of calls and messages from traumatised citizens around the area. All of the calls and messages were about peculiar pigs floating through the air.

Two hours later, Farmer Bradford got annoyed and phoned the police. "They're my pigs!" Farmer Bradford screamed through the phone. "I was in bed when a snort came through my window," he explained. "Oink, oink was all I could hear until 7AM. At 9AM I also heard neighing and car honking constantly."

The next day the police were swamped with more calls about ~~the~~ roof tiles falling off and obstacles in the way of cars. Later that day police set off to see the obstacles, they couldn't believe it there was trees, pig shoes and bird nests.

The police are questioning Farmers and locals for suspicious happenings around the area.

Be careful while walking because there are pigs in the air and poos everywhere. Take your umbrella with you.

By Arië

Friday Pigs

On Friday there were many calls to the police from teachers in Oxford school with pigs related problems. Miss Trunchball reported pigs flying and crashing into school equipment and heard ~~see~~ squeaking.

~~later~~ Later that day there were more reports of pigs destroying bushes by landing.

★ → police are investigating and asking people reports if they have seen anything

★ Miss Trunchball the head teacher how heard the noys of snorting and onking in the bush

Frankie

By Frankie

Monday 10th: pig walk

On Tuesday 30th April, I was a great deal surprised in the night sleep. This happened in 1888. Some of the children of the shop called the children "white children".

Some how shocked in 1888. The pigs were making a noise. Some was angry and got more police on. Some came down how long I saw.

The pigs came down and got some things. Some were seen sleep on the side of the ground.

The police were questioning the local people to see how they were.

By Leo

On Monday the swat were over today with call's saying's pig's are flying

A old man said the swats and said said "a pig was shot in to my window and shot at the window and shot on me and left mud on the window."

The next day morning the swat got more call's as pig's flying.

If you see pig flying call the swat immediatly.

by Teddy

flying Rigs

On Tuesday sunrise there were lots of calls to the ranch station from all farmers like farmer Bill where questioned about rigs that would fly. Going loose in central town.

Farmer Bill reported seeing Rigs break his rocking chair and send Mrs Bill's knitting over.

As many feel there more reports of Rigs in central town.

The police have said about on the the Police if it happens again.

By Hancy

Friday Report: Pesky Pigs.

On Friday 31st May at 9pm the police were bombarded with calls from concerned french farmers reporting their pigs flying over a Avenue tower.

Ellie was walking her dog and reported seeing pigs levitating up in the sky. "When I was walking my dog I heard an oink and there were pigs everywhere. I'm terribly concerned, as the pigs higher their color colour got brighter."

The next morning, the pigs became air sick and started vomiting on several cars and there was even more calls to the police station.

The police are questioning the locals and farmers to see if they have lost any pigs. The residents are warned to be careful on the roads.

by Kyra